To Whom It May Concern:

I recently had the pleasure of working with Gergely Varga while shooting a television series for Travel Channel in Budapest. I hired Gergely and his company to be our fixers while we were in Hungary. From the first moment I spoke with him, I felt completely at ease. His professionalism, his knowledge of the business, his connections in the local market, his creative input and more helped make our production run extremely smooth. Gergely worked well under pressure, filling every request we had no matter how challenging or last minute. In fact, I joked with Gergely that I didn't think the word "no" was part of his vocabulary, but I honestly feel that was the case. Gergely went over and above what we asked of him, and I hope that I will be back in Hungary soon so that I have the pleasure of working with him again.

Sincerely,
